

Request for Ethical Approval for Research Project in Psychology

Dear Katie Bagshawe

The research project entitled "Investigating the Psychological Impact of Pulmonary Fibrosis" has been submitted for ethical review to the Designated Research Ethics Working Group (DREWG) and I am pleased to confirm that it has now received a favourable review.

Please note that the research project has been approved based on the description you formally submitted. Any changes to the protocols before this time will need to be resubmitted for ethics re-approval.
